

Part X, Minimum Investment Return

4. The entire balance of the trust is held as cash for charitable activities because investment opportunities for less than $200 were not available with the financial institutions that the custodian was able to identify.