

Part VII A, Statements Regarding Activities

2. The fund had sufficient assets to invest in long term investments in accordance with the governing instrument.

Part X, Minimum Investment Return

4. The remaining balance of the trust is held as cash for charitable activities because investment opportunities for less than $200 are not available with the financial institutions that the custodian was able to identify.